Located in the desirable border area of Peppermint Grove and Cottesloe, this spacious and low-maintenance family home offers comfortable living options both indoors and outdoors. Perfect for young families or professional couples, this well-maintained home boasts a gated walkway off Johnston Street for added privacy and security. As you step inside, you will be greeted by two separate living areas that provide ample space for relaxation and entertainment. The functional kitchen area includes plenty of storage options to cater to your everyday needs. The home features four generous-sized bedrooms, with built-in robes in two bedrooms, and a large linen press for added storage. The fourth bedroom can easily be converted into a study, providing added flexibility for your needs. Enjoy outdoor living with multiple options for entertainment, including a north-facing garden, and ample space for outdoor gatherings. Overall, this low-maintenance family home is ideal for those seeking a spacious yet cosy abode in a prime location.
