Fabulously featured with a huge entertainers' balcony, a prized north-easterly aspect and no common walls, this third-floor apartment provides an elegant home base or investor special in a peaceful Hurstville street. Bathed in gorgeous morning light, interiors are freshly presented with soft neutral colour palettes, a spacious kitchen boasting an island and plenty of overhead storage, and a wonderfully welcoming bedroom retreat. Best of all, a central address pairs suburban tranquillity with a vibrant lifestyle, just a short stroll from Westfield and only 350 metres from the station. Features: Quality first purchase opportunity or portfolio addition Open-plan living and bedroom flow to superb private balcony Bright bathroom with tub + shower, laundry and window Gas cooktop, mirrored built-in wardrobe, intercom entrance Full brick building with lift access to single lock-up garage and separate storage room Moments to local cafes + restaurants, shopping and transport
