A brilliant name for a fantastic apartment complex that showcases No.25, a 1 bedroom that is so big that it might as well be a two. Elevated and to the rear it features a secure entry and once inside the space and style explosion will surely please with its metres of open living that includes a kitchen with dining plus a spacious sitting room that all opens to a private and impressive terrace. The bedroom with robe is great but then you will find a separate dining, 2nd bedroom or brilliant work from home solution. Carpark and storage locker come with the property in a position that happens to be Melbourne's premier lifestyle location with Windsor station at the door, Chapel Street restaurants, tram and more just steps away
