Situated in New Town, near public transportation and amenities, this property exudes character and charm. Creatively upgraded to capture the history and essence of its origins, it has been brought to the highest standard. This fully renovated home, formerly a squash court, has been tastefully transformed into a modern apartment. The master bedroom is located on a mezzanine floor, overlooking the spacious open-plan living area. The modern kitchen and polished floorboards further enhance the property's appeal. Additionally, there is off-street parking for one car. This truly iconic property needs to be viewed to appreciate its rarity. Please enquire with your interest to be kept up to date with open home times and changes.
