Peacefully tucked away at the end of a tranquil security complex, this delightful two-bedroom retreat unveils lifestyle ease and comfort in a fantastic location. Elevated on the second level and brimming with natural light, this generously scaled haven boasts a vast layout with a combined total of 82sqm. A practical layout features a combined living/dining zone and ideally separate sleeping quarters and is enhanced by a balcony complete with a green and leafy outlook. The home includes a classic kitchen with plenty of storage space as well as two double bedrooms, one equipped with a built-in. There is also a bathroom with a combined tub/shower and a single car space. This low-maintenance property represents the first choice for both first home buyers and smart investors. While it is ready to move into, it also offers plenty of scope to add a personal touch in the future if desired.

- Vast floorplan with separate sleeping quarters
- Covered balcony enjoying the district outlook
- Neat electric kitchen with space for laundry
- Exciting potential to modernise and improve
- Set within serene 'Elizabeth Gardens' complex

Within just moments of Lane Cove's bustling village centre and easy walking distance to express city buses and Artarmon train station, this pad is just a 7-minute drive from Westfield Chatswood and easy access to a selection of quality schools.
