A recent interior upgrade has refreshed this light-filled two-bedroom apartment and made it an easy-to-manage home with lots of light, quality and style throughout. Providing a quiet oasis in the vibrant inner west, it now offers a sleek modern residence embracing low-care living with a practical single-level layout and a great location close to the light rail stop, Arlington Reserve and the buzzing heart of Dulwich Hill. The smartly presented property is also handy to all the attractions that make the Dulwich Park Estate resort community such a sought-after place to live. Bright northerly aspect that brings in year-round natural light. Air-conditioned living & dining spaces with sleek polished floors. A sunny entertainment terrace that flows off the living space. Two peaceful bedrooms with built-ins plus a second balcony. Renovated kitchen with high-end fittings plus a modern bathroom. Lock-up garage, intercom security and lots of built-in storage. A quality resort community with gardens and swimming pool. Presented in perfect condition with nothing more to do or spend.
