Don't miss out on this fantastic opportunity, when will you ever find land this cheap again!! Just 24kms from Manjimup this 11.37 acre block has lots going for it. The property has a large colorbond shed and a small hut located towards the front of the property leaving beautiful views of the natural wetlands. There is power running through the front of the block readily available for connection. This beautiful section of rural land neighbours the state forest so there is plenty for you to explore and has a private no through road giving you all the piece and quiet to enjoy this slice of heaven. Don't miss out on this great opportunity for your own rural retreat!!
