

25 Burke Street, Coorparoo, Qld 4151

Sold House

Tuesday, 19 September 2023

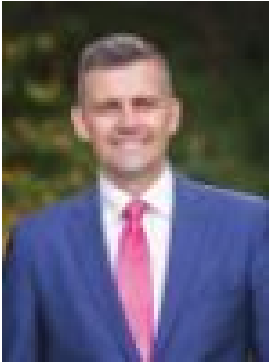

25 Burke Street, Coorparoo, Qld 4151

Bedrooms: 4

Bathrooms: 2

Parkings: 2

Type: House

Steven Gow

$1,130,000

Why you'll love it: This charming pre-1946 Queenslander has been beautifully restored, maintaining all of its original charm with the addition of modern amenities to make this a very comfortable and appealing home. Featuring a flexible layout with three bedrooms upstairs and a fourth downstairs bedroom with an adjoining entertainment area, a large deck overlooking the backyard and park beyond, and close proximity to shops, schools, and transport. Key Features:

- Stunning pre-1946 Queenslander on 405m² block
- Pine timber floors, VJ walls, lead lighting, breezeways
- Three bedrooms upstairs, the main with walk-in robe and a/c
- Large upstairs bathroom with shower over the bath
- Second bathroom downstairs with separate shower & bath
- Spacious family room and separate lounge room with a/c
- Tiled downstairs entertainment area with wet bar
- Timber eat-in kitchen in period style, modern functionality
- Gas cooktop, under bench oven and grill, dishwasher
- Double tandem garage + downstairs laundry room
- Highset front deck and large rear deck overlooking the yard
- Front and back downstairs covered entertaining deck
- Fenced, grassy yard with established trees and gardens
- Backing onto parkland with direct, rear gate access
- Walk to Coorparoo State School and Coorparoo Square
- Nearby express busses + walk to Coorparoo train station
- Convenience 6kms to South Bank and Brisbane CBD

Best suited for: Buyers looking for a character-filled pre-1946 home that requires no work to enjoy in a quiet, parkside locale.