Nestled in the heart of Sinnamon Park, 25 Drummond Street offers a perfect blend of suburban tranquillity and urban convenience. With only one neighbour, and two sides backing onto a large family park, this 664m<sup>2</sup> property provides an unbeatable location for family living. While the home is currently very solid and functional, it also presents an exciting opportunity for the visionary home owner to enhance its interior and create a dream home tailored to individual preferences. Boasting four bedrooms and two bathrooms, including a master with ensuite, this home caters perfectly to family living. Built-in robes in all bedrooms provide ample storage space, while air conditioning ensures year-round comfort. Step outside to discover a spacious outdoor entertaining area and a large multi-level backyard, perfect for hosting gatherings or simply unwinding amidst nature. The proud new owner of this fantastic family home will enjoy easy access to a host of amenities, including Sinnamon Park Village Shop which is a nice stroll down the road. For more extensive shopping and entertainment options, Mount Ommaney Shopping Centre and DFO Jindalee are just a short drive away. With an abundance of parks, shops, and dining options nearby, this property offers a convenient and vibrant lifestyle for families seeking the best suburban living in Sinnamon Park. This immense opportunity is sure to garner an abundance of attention, so make sure to get in touch with Jeremy Langlois from STRUD Property today!
