

25 Duntroon Avenue, Roseville, NSW 2069

Sold House

Thursday, 15 February 2024

25 Duntroon Avenue, Roseville, NSW 2069

Bedrooms: 4

Bathrooms: 3

Parkings: 1

Area: 1010 m2

Type: House

Piers van Hamburg
0411322666

Daniel Blagg
0406475953

Contact agent

Here is a rare opportunity to own a piece of architectural history in Roseville. This Federation-style home is situated at the highest geographical point in Roseville and is the jewel of the street. Built in 1913 by Edward Carden, this home features exquisite details, including beautiful ornate ceilings oozing with character and a huge dome ceiling in the lounge room that must be seen to be believed. Steeped in precious Australian history and on the market for the first time in 55 years, this tightly-held Federation-style family home is defined by a timeless sense of elegance and sophistication. You will find yourself tucked away in a picturesque Roseville pocket, just a stroll from city buses and a 250m level walk to Roseville Public School. - Magnificent formal living room, wood burning fireplace, casual family area- Large entertaining deck overlooks sparkling pool, koi pond and lush gardens- Kitchen equipped with gas stovetop, walk-in pantry, scope to modernise (STCA)- Main bedroom reveals built-in robes, ensuite and lovely leadlight bay window- Original fireplaces and floorboards, adaptable detached home office/studio- Covered carport with rear lane access, moments to Chatswood, Roseville Station