A surprise package from the moment you enter the property! This substantial home was designed around the needs of a large family, with generous accommodation and multiple living spaces over two levels. Featuring up to six bedrooms including a spacious main with built-in wardrobe, and two modern bathrooms, there is ample space for everyone. At the rear of the home, open plan living areas adjoin the industrial style kitchen which showcases unique concrete benchtops and breakfast bar. On the first floor, a large rumpus room takes full advantage of the bright northerly aspect, bathing this generous living space in natural light. Set on approx. 398sqm and enjoying the benefit of rear lane access, the property features off street parking with potential for a garage or studio (subject to council approval). Perfectly positioned only a short stroll from First Street Pantry, Blick Oval, local schools and transport, this is the ultimate opportunity for those looking for a long term family home in an ideal location.
