Welcome to a property that has the potential to be transformed into something truly special. If you are a builder, investor or not afraid of a little work, here is a project that gives you the opportunity to spread your wings and reap the rewards. The picturesque town of Sheffield is located just 23 kilometres (Approx.) from Devonport and has long been a popular location. With the majestic Mount Roland being the backdrop of the Sheffield township, Sheffield is a friendly rural town where history and art merge. The location of this property alone presents an exciting proposition offering a blank canvas for the renovator seeking a challenge. This mixed with your personal flair and a vision for 1900's charm and design will create a beautiful space to call home. Whether you're a seasoned renovator or a first-time buyer looking for a project, this property has potential stamped all over it. With all the convenience of town living just seconds away from your doorstep, bring with you your imagination!
