Don't miss this opportunity to secure an excellent investment property. The 3 bedroom home is nicely presented, with some modern updates throughout, as well as ceiling fans and split systems. The master bedroom features a parents retreat/walk in robe, as well as a decorative fireplace that has potential to be restored. The kitchen is very solid and functional with quality timber cabinets. The backyard is fenced and offers a blank canvas for landscaping, as well as an enclosed garage. Aside from being a great place to call home, it is also an excellent price point for a rental investment. The property is currently tenanted. Contact the selling agent for further information and inspections.
