Set in this popular old Township Location a great opportunity to enter the tightly held Woodside market. The compact 1950's 3 bedroom home offers the potential to extend or renovate to your requirements with the confidence that this blue chip area will perform well into the future. There is a recently renovated bathroom with floor to ceiling tiling and quality appliances , kitchen / Dining with electric oven and original cupboards . Hiding under the old carpet are hardwood Jarrah floors which would come up a treat with a polish, the old windows have been replaced with low maintenance aluminium one's , and outside has been re clad over the old fibro . The gentle sloping block is over 1200 m2 there is an old school garage in good shape , chook yard , and a great sunny spot for a veggie patch . Rainwater also is into the house . Fantastic reno project, or just move right in , or let it out, as rental properties are in huge demmand . Further details & inspection Bill James 0412 802 143
