Seaside living at its best, you will fall in love with this 2 bedroom, 2 bathroom cottage located one block back from the beach in the sleepy seaside suburb of Flying Fish Point. Ah the serenity! When you arrive at this property you will immediately appreciate the lush tropical gardens and manicured lawn. This is a large corner block and although situated a block back from the beach you will enjoy the benefit of ocean views from the front balcony. The front of the house hosts a spacious balcony with ample room for a BBQ or outdoor setting to sit and enjoy the view. You will appreciate the large open doorway to the front entry of the home leading into the open living and kitchen area, displaying a coastal vibe and inviting cool sea breezes. The bedrooms are separated by a newly renovated modern bathroom and another shower and separate toilet in the downstairs area at the rear of the property. The kitchen is modern and equipped with ample cupboard space. There is a carport to the rear of the house and added storage space, garden shed and extra entertainment area. Freshly painted and new flooring throughout, you will literally only have to move in! • 15-minute drive to Innisfail CBD, Hospital etc. • Approximately 1.5-hour drive to Cairns International and Domestic Airport. • Approximately 750 metres to Flying Fish Point Primary School. • School and Public bus service.
