Nestled in the heart of Buderim's serene landscape, 25 Karawatha Street stands as a beacon of domestic bliss, perfect for families or astute investors. This impressive property boasts four well-appointed bedrooms, three modern bathrooms, and an expansive land size of 838 square metres, offering a slice of suburban paradise with a tranquil bush backdrop and filtered ocean vistas. Designed with the growing family in mind, the north-facing, elevated home capitalises on its position, offering dual living potential that includes a second kitchen that could quite easily be converted to a fully self-contained area, or as an amazing space for the extended family or rental income opportunities. The spacious interior is centred around a large kitchen, which seamlessly adjoins an open plan living and dining area, creating a heart for the home that encourages togetherness. Meanwhile, the proximity to the Coast's finest beaches and bustling shopping precincts ensures that leisure and practicality walk hand-in-hand. Outdoor enthusiasts will revel in the three alfresco entertaining areas, all boasting either ocean or lush bushland views. The in-ground pool beckons for family fun, while well-established, easy-care gardens overlook 2.5 hectares of natural bushland, offering a picturesque and private sanctuary. Completing this exceptional offering is ample parking with a double car park facility and a fully fenced yard providing security for both pets and children.
