

25 Lillie Street, Glebe, Tas 7000

PETERSWALD
for property

House For Sale

Tuesday, 23 April 2024

25 Lillie Street, Glebe, Tas 7000

Bedrooms: 2

Bathrooms: 1

Area: 82 m2

Type: House

Harry Coomer
0448544100

Phoebe Nothing
0362247090

$745,000+ price range

Exuding Victorian character and charm from a prestigious, tightly held Glebe location, boasting views of the peaks of Kunanyi/Mount Wellington, this impressive, renovated home offers a superior level of comfort in a highly in-demand position. Retained period features now live harmoniously with contemporary renovations, carried out to respect, and enhance the existing attributes, such as timber flooring, now decorative fireplaces, and intricate lead-light windows. Newly replaced roof, gutters, insulation and external painting all to be enjoyed by the next custodian. Sunshine floods the home, creating a warm and inviting ambiance throughout. The entrance level features a sumptuous lounge room, and a separate dining room with casual family living space. The kitchen comes equipped with oven, cooktop and rangehood, ample storage within quality cabinetry, and gorgeous timber countertops. The space extends to a sun-drenched, private courtyard, making outdoor entertaining a breeze amid lush garden surrounds. Comfortable accommodation comprises of two generous bedrooms occupying the upper-level of the home, plenty of sunshine and warmth through skylights, and one spills out to a private, sunny timber deck where the mountain views are spectacular. The home is serviced by a neat bathroom, complete with a shower, vanity, and a toilet, with space to also house the laundry. Beneath the staircase storage is provided. Occupying a coveted and convenient city fringe position, nestled amongst beautiful, historic homes with a stunning streetscape, this remarkable, renovated home combines character, charm, and contemporary comfort with magnificent mountain views in Glebe.