Welcome to your dream Hampton style retreat - a delightful home that embraces the essence of country coastal living in one. With four bedrooms and an additional room perfect for an office or music room, this property offers ample space for your growing family. Step inside and be captivated by the light and airy ambiance that flows throughout the large open plan living areas with whitewashed timber flooring throughout. The spacious living provides a cozy and comfortable space for relaxation, while the separate lounge room adds an element of privacy and versatility to the home. Beat the heat with air-conditioning in the living, dining area, and 3 bedrooms, ensuring year-round comfort. Fans have been installed throughout the property to provide a refreshing breeze on warm summer days. The heart of the home is the stunning kitchen, which will impress even the most discerning chef. Boasting stone bench tops, a pantry, a dishwasher, ample storage with pot drawers, and a convenient breakfast bar, this kitchen is the perfect setting for culinary creations and entertaining guests, with easy accessibility to the outdoor alfresco and district views. Discover a sense of space and freedom with high ceilings that enhance the overall feeling of openness and grandeur. With 6.6kw of solar power, you can enjoy reduced energy costs while making a positive impact on the environment. Entertaining family and friends will be a breeze with the covered front and rear decks or laze away the day in the sparkling spa. Whether you're hosting a BBQ or simply enjoying the sunshine, these outdoor spaces provide the perfect setting for relaxation and enjoyment. The fully fenced grassed yard is ideal for children to play and explore, providing a safe and secure environment. The automatic gate ensures easy access to the property, and there is ample space to accommodate your boat or caravan to the side. Located in a sought-after community, this home offers a lifestyle second to none. Enjoy the convenience to schools, vibrant cafes, and a range of recreational activities just moments from your doorstep. Don't miss this opportunity to make this coastal-inspired home your own. With its spacious layout, modern features, and coveted location, it is sure to impress. Contact us today to arrange a private inspection and experience the lifestyle you've always dreamed of.
