Scaling the heights of contemporary style, this fantastic terrace exhibits precision design in a masterful composition of quality finishes. Interiors are imbued with a sense of class, pairing white walls with dark, polished floorboards. Crafted from lavish marble slabs, the kitchen establishes a fabulous setting for entertaining at home, inspiring you to cater for guests as they unwind in the lounge or courtyard. The bathroom also impresses with a premium finish and includes laundry facilities. Both bedrooms are quietly placed upstairs. Each provides access to deep storage spaces, and there is additional storage under the stairs. This is the perfect pad for professionals with busy lifestyles who prioritise convenience and close proximity to daily essentials. Enjoy car-free living placed a stroll from the upcoming Surry Hills Village by TOGA, as well as Surry Hills dining attractions and city transport links. It will also draw interest from investors, impressed by the home's luxurious and highly photogenic interiors, making it an alluring abode for short or long-term rentals in an excellent location. Explore Redfern's colourful collection of cocktail bars and micro breweries, and the established restaurants and cafes lined along Crown Street. It is also set an easy stroll from village shops in Waterloo, Moore Park Golf and Centennial Parklands. - 2 bed | 1 bath - Two-storey terrace filled with natural light - Chocolate stained hardwood floorboards - Private & stylish courtyard with seating - Lavish marble-slab benchtops & splashbacks - Miele appliances, gas stovetop, dishwasher - Air con, internal laundry, abundant storage - Quiet laneway setting near Cleveland Street - Highly anticipated village hub by TOGA nearby - Only 750 metres from Surry Hills Light Rail
