Welcome to your brand-new haven in the sought-after Kingsfield Estate, Sunbury - a residence that embodies contemporary living with a perfect blend of style and functionality. This immaculate home is strategically situated within walking distance of future developments, including schools and a new town center boasting shops, parks, and scenic walking tracks. The location is highly coveted, promising a lifestyle of convenience and community vibrancy. This spacious home features four bedrooms and two bathrooms, with the master bedroom commanding attention at the front of the house. Boasting generous proportions, it comes complete with a large walk-in robe and a stunning ensuite. The remaining three bedrooms, equipped with mirrored robes, line the central hallway and share a beautifully appointed central bathroom. Designed for modern living, the home offers two distinct living zones. The main living area, in an open-plan concept at the rear, is grand in size, seamlessly flowing into a large dining space and offering picturesque views of the landscaped backyard. Overlooked by an elegant kitchen, this culinary haven is a treat for cooking enthusiasts. Equipped with a 900mm inbuilt oven, premium gas cooktop, dishwasher, large plumbed fridge cavity, and an abundance of drawers and cupboards, the kitchen is topped off with stone benchtops featuring waterfall edges on the island bench. Completing the culinary setup is a spacious walk-in pantry, providing ample storage for all your kitchen needs. Step outside through sliding doors to a delightful alfresco area, perfect for entertaining during the warmer months. This extends to a spacious lush lawn, catering to the needs of growing families and their pets alike. Additional features abound, ducted gas heating and split system cooling including high ceilings, LED downlights throughout, floating floorboards, an internal laundry, a double car garage with internal access, concrete paths around the home, pendant lighting in the kitchen, dual undermount sinks, a tiled alfresco area, and so much more. Embrace a lifestyle of modern luxury and comfort in this thoughtfully designed residence that leaves no detail untouched.
