

25 Main Street, Robertson, NSW 2577

Sold House

Friday, 8 March 2024

25 Main Street, Robertson, NSW 2577

Bedrooms: 4

Bathrooms: 2

Parkings: 2

Area: 1000 m2

Type: House

Kate McCullagh
0411411244

Ana Calvert
0458628948

Contact agent

This warm and inviting home was designed by renowned architect Martin O'Toole. Certain to steal your heart and soothe your soul. Sitting on an elevated block with picture perfect surroundings, offering distant rural vistas, an abundance of natural light while maintaining privacy from the residential street and your neighbours. Step inside to discover the spacious layout which provides a generous open-plan lounge and dining that is bathed in sun, with French doors that flow to a lovely paved alfresco entertaining space. The near new kitchen is a chef's delight with designer finishes and a neutral palette. It features stone benchtops and all the modern amenities you could wish for, including a gas cooktop, shaker-style cabinets and double-dish drawers. All the bedrooms are relaxed havens. The master suite located on the ground floor is spacious and private and features a large walk-in robe and ensuite. For practicality, a guest powder room is located on the ground floor. Upstairs comprises of three more bedrooms, a family bathroom, and a fabulous, spacious second living area that is bright and airy with windows that take in the lovely outlook. Located on a quiet street on approx. 1,000sqm block of low maintenance landscaped grounds of garden "rooms". There is also a separate double garage and space to park a boat or caravan accessed by a sealed concrete driveway. Only a short walk to the main street of "Robo" with its art galleries, antique and artisan stores, cafes and restaurants. This is your chance to own a stunning country residence that is sure to impress, and experience the charm of the Robertson lifestyle. With its rolling green countryside, Robertson Village has starred in several notable Hollywood films. Close to Bowral and Moss Vale, there is easy access to the area's top schools, medical facilities, and several nature walks, swimming holes and majestic waterfalls. The pristine beaches of the South Coast are a mere 40-minute drive. If you've been dreaming of an escape to the country, this gorgeous home is for you. For more information on this property please contact Kate McCullagh on 0411 411 244 or Ana Calvert on 0458 628 948.