Welcome to 25 Niles Court, Bahrs Scrub! Have you been looking for the perfect spot for your new home but can't find anything that gives the feeling of space and privacy without giving up the location you want. Now is your chance to secure the largest block available in the ever popular Bahrs Scrub area. This magnificent 4805 m² block, ticks the boxes for both location and space. The block is within a new residential estate with prestigious homes, but is a rare find, being over 1 acre of land, tucked behind the other homes and surrounded by bushland providing privacy. It is a blank canvas, waiting for someone to build their dream home, with plenty of room for all the extra's. Perfect for a growing family. The block has a large build pad that would suit either a single or double storey home and can be designed to take in the view of the bushland and the feeling of elevation whilst enjoying acreage living. The size and positioning of the block lends towards a family with need for extra space, with room to move whether work or play. There is space for what ever you want, pool, for a large shed and maneuverability for large vehicles and any extras you may wish to add. Sited house plan available at request.
