Set on a generous 715 sqm allotment in the heart of Camberwell, this exquisite family home seamlessly combines timeless elegance with contemporary comforts. Ideally located close to a variety of amenities, including quality shopping precincts, leafy parks, and well-regarded schools, the home sits in an area known for its convenience and quality of life. The grand formal living space, complete with a character-filled fireplace, welcomes you into the home. The main bedroom offers a luxurious retreat, boasting a captivating bay window, expansive walk-in robe, and private ensuite. The home's three additional bedrooms, thoughtfully designed with built-in robes, make it an ideal space for family living. At the home's centre, an open-plan living area transitions smoothly into a well-appointed kitchen, complete with a butler's pantry. Large glass sliding doors blur the lines between indoor and outdoor spaces, opening onto a private north-east facing backyard. Here, an inground pool and sophisticated alfresco dining area create a unique entertaining space with direct access to the tranquil Willison Park. Additional features such as a versatile multipurpose room, a discreet laundry, an extra powder room, a secure garage, and off-street parking add to the home's convenience. Experience comfortable family living in this captivating residence, positioned in one of Melbourne's most popular suburbs.
