Beyond an appealing facade, an extremely well-planned layout encompasses numerous living zones and timeless style with modern convenience in a sought after estate with a focus on community. The master bedroom is spacious with plenty of walk-in wardrobe space and a new sleek ensuite with dual basins and walk-in shower whilst an additional three, well-proportioned bedrooms with built-in robes complete the accommodation. Follow the hallway down to an expansive open-plan living room complimented by a Caesar Stone kitchen with 900mm gas cooktop and oven. This light, bright space offers a flexible layout with ample space for large sofas nestled around the kitchen perfect for evenings in with plenty of space for a dining table for entertaining family and friends whilst providing a seamless flow through to the outdoor alfresco area. There is also a separate modern laundry with access to the outdoors and a stylish new powder room. Stepping outside, you have the enjoyment of a low maintenance yard incorporating space and privacy. Conveniently situated less than a kilometre to the local IGA and café's, if you are looking for space in a fabulous location, this home is a must see with an abundance of features on offer:

- Ducted Air Conditioning throughout
- Walk In Pantry to the kitchen
- Living Room with multi-purpose room ideal for study or home office
- Internal access to the double remote garage
