So many possibilities are on offer for the new owner of this solid brick, three bedroom, Victorian home on over 5000 square metres of land in central Castlemaine. Situated with a common boundary to the Winters Flat Primary School oval, this unique property is only 1.5 km to the Castlemaine shops. The house has recently been updated and improved with plumbing, electrical work, new hot water service and new appliances. It's comfortable, with loads of character and original features including OFP, plaster detailing, timber floors and multiple stone basement rooms at ground level, perfect for storage or studio space and enormous potential to further enhance, subdivide and extend on this huge corner allotment. Castlemaine is one of the fastest growing country towns in Victoria, with its distinctive arts culture. The recent discount in railway fares structure makes regional living practical and desirable, and it's an easy walk to the station from 25 Ray Street. The door is open to offers, so come knocking before it's sold. Please make an appointment to view or watch for the advertised Open times. *Approximately.
