Welcoming you in on approach, the driveway leads to a beautiful and large front deck. Stepping inside and you'll feel right at home with warm wooden flooring, air-con and the traditional layout you've become accustomed to. The living space adjoins the dining room and flows to the kitchen. Neat and tidy, the chef of the home will be pleased with the spacious kitchen with ample storage and appliances. Off to the right of the home and down a private hallway are the 3 well-appointed bedrooms. The main bed also offers an air-con for year-round comfort. The bathroom has a generous layout with a separate toilet for family convenience. With so much space there's even a garden shed and room for something more substantial if you're after it!
