Bringing iconic 70's design and a park like setting together to give this beautiful homes new owners an absolute dream. This Fasham Johnson classic home has retained all of the original design features that make these homes highly sought after. With floor to ceiling windows, timber feature panelling, built in cabinetry and seamless flow, this four bedroom, two bathroom home has all the space that a growing family could possibly wish for. With main bedroom and ensuite, guest bedroom and private sitting area at the front of the home, the further two bedrooms and main bathroom are at the rear of the home affording privacy and zoned for family living. Connecting either end of the house is a large living room that embraces formal dining, formal and informal lounge areas, full height windows and sliding doors that allow the sun to stream in. An ornamental grape vine over the pergola ensures shade from the summer sun while allowing winter sun to flood into the living areas providing warmth and ambience. The large kitchen adjoins the spacious informal dining area, which is open to the living area. Step out from the dining area to an enormous outdoor, undercover deck that flows onto a garden complete with vegetable beds, several productive fruit trees, a potting shed, storage shed and large shed/garage that has a concrete floor and power. Hedged on the Eastern and Western boundaries for privacy, the rear boundary has an access gate to stroll straight out onto the Romsey sports precinct. With less than a five minute walk to the primary school and soon to be new supermarket, this really is an incredible opportunity to secure this beautiful property. DISCLAIMER: All stated dimensions are approximate only.
