Welcome to 25 Whitsunday Street. This pristine home showcases a light-filled living and dining area enhanced by decorative ceilings, and all overlooking the outdoor entertaining area. Taking center stage is an exquisite entertainer's kitchen where meters of stone and sleek stainless steel appliances are the stars. Sliding doors extend the living outdoors to an east-facing and covered alfresco area, that includes patio screens. Just imagine the special occasions you could enjoy here by the stunning, new in-ground pool, that is beautifully appointed and offers maintenance free landscaping. This well-appointed single level abode is sure to pique the interest of discerning downsizers as well as families seeking an easy-care slice of this ever-popular neighbourhood. All within 2.5kms of the beach and 600 meters to Double Bay. Split system heating and cooling features in the all the living areas and the master bedroom, which boasts an extra large wardrobe. The master also benefits from a striking hotel-inspired ensuite. There are three further bedrooms, one with a split system and all with built in robes and fans. Importantly the home also includes a separate living room, offering the ability to separate Xboxes and toys from the main living zone. The ultimate setting for a carefree lifestyle, among the home's highlights are: -Tinted glazing for added comfort- 6kw solar- 2 x sheds- Sought-after side access, wide enough for the caravan or boat- Just one door to the bike/walking path that runs alongside Mooloolah River and offers kilometers of exercise and easy access to Mooloolaba.
