This fabulous Federation gem exudes warmth and classic charm. Superbly renovated to include stylish contemporary comforts, yet still brimming with period features, this property is a delight to behold. Entering the house, you immediately step into a stunning central hallway, complete with gorgeous arches, ceiling roses and covetable hardwood flooring. The bedrooms-located either side of the hallway-have great proportions, but the main bedroom is a standout. With its original fireplace, large walk-in-wardrobe and all-white ensuite with walk-in shower, this is quite the luxury suite. Toward the rear of the home is a spacious living room-with another fireplace-and an outstanding gourmet kitchen, beautifully designed to be in keeping with the character of the house. The most discerning of cooks will love the huge built-in pantry, stone benchtops and 900mm freestanding oven with gas cooktop. The good times continue outside, with a timber entertaining deck area, built-in outdoor kitchen and a lockable bar. What a top spot to relax on long summer days (or anytime, to be fair), gazing out at the beautiful in-ground pool with its glass fencing and travertine-tiled surrounds. If this is ticking your boxes, why not give Sheree a call? She'd love to show you all it has to offer.
