Proudly built by Kenstar Prestige Homes to the highest standards, this rendered brick veneer magnificent provincial masterpiece of approximately 65 squares is certain to delight the pickiest buyers in the blue-ribbon locale of Glen Waverley. Bold details highlight the home's breathtaking proportions with elegant entrance doors opening to reveal the stunning European oak parquet flooring that flows through to the lavish formal lounge room. The corridor to the family area will wow with four gorgeous Roman columns and the classic wine rack. Captivating the consummate chef, the exquisite kitchen showcases fabulous marble benchtops, classy joinery with shaker profile, Miele appliances, integrated refrigerator and freezer, second kitchen with butler's pantry plus an island breakfast bench, opening onto a splendid dining zone and family room with built in tv joinery. Dual sliding doors deliver a seamless connection to the outdoor alfresco area. An upstairs retreat is further accompanied by a study area and four super sized bedrooms that all come with their own walk-in-robos and ensuites including the super-size master with dressing room, opulent ensuite and balcony overlooking a park opposite the street. For guests, the 5th bedroom at the ground floor will delight with a walk-in-robe and ensuite. Furthermore, the home features a powder room, huge laundry, zoned refrigerated cooling and heating, frameless shower screens, large French cornices, wall panels, large architraves and skirtings, double garage with internal access and much more. Set on a rectangular 658m² (approx.) flat block located at a peaceful and charming street, this beauty is just moments to The Glen Shopping Center, Kingsway entertainment precinct, train station, Wesley College, Caulfield Grammar, Highvale Secondary, public transport, Capital Reserve, Dandenong Creek Trail, and the Monash Freeway.
