On just over a hundred and ten acres this fantastic hideaway is in a perfect position with sealed road frontage, bordering crown land and only 15 minutes from Mansfield. The gently rolling terrain makes for a leisurely stroll where you will be amazed by the variety of wild life, with an added bonus there is enough fire wood for a life time. At over 600 meters in altitude you get to see the clear starry nights like never before, combined with great privacy that will give sense of peace from the manic modern world. Fabulous shed, dams and good driveway, plus that huge attraction of zoning being Rural Living. Make it yours today! Call for your private inspection.
