High-side with leafy reserve vistas, this vintage 50's home has so much to offer the savvy purchaser looking to add value in a premium waterside pocket. The classic home has been tightly held for 51 years and has been refreshed with new carpet and paint making it liveable or leasable. In a quiet cul-de-sac, it brings so much potential surrounded by exclusive homes. Positioned on a north facing 668sqm, the full brick home presents light filled living and dining rooms, four spacious bedrooms, a home office and a charming retro kitchen with a built-in dining bench. The terrace at the front provides wonderful space for entertaining and there is lawn at the back for the kids to play on. Explore the opportunity (STCA), a stroll to the bus, Castle Cove Public School and local shops.
