

256/101 Port Hacking Road, Sylvania, NSW 2224

Sold Retirement Living

Friday, 12 April 2024

256/101 Port Hacking Road, Sylvania, NSW 2224

Bedrooms: 1

Bathrooms: 1

Type: Retirement Living

Edwina Hardy

Contact agent

Unit 256/101 Port Hacking Road is a large one-bedroom unit with garden views, set within the warm & welcoming community of Frank Vickery Village. The unit offers a large open-plan living space, thoughtfully renovated for comfortable retirement living including air conditioning, stylish kitchen and bathroom finishes and sweeping garden views. Enjoy the peace of mind of a close and connected community, every unit is fitted with an emergency call button connected to 24/7 onsite staff. You can continue to be independent and live close to family and friends in The Shire, while receiving all the benefits of village life including dining café serving hot & nutritious meals, bowling green, visiting allied health professionals, a small gym and social activities. Frank Vickery Village is in the heart of Sylvania close to all amenities including local shopping precincts Southgate and Westfield Miranda and just a short drive to the vibrancy of Cronulla Beach. Features include: • master bedroom • large, open plan living/dining • contemporary finishes • bathroom with internal laundry • split system air conditioner for climate control • 24-hour emergency call system to family and onsite staff. We also have parking and storage areas available nearby if needed. Please speak to our team for details. We offer an affordable retirement living in a supportive community at Frank Vickery Village – an inclusive, welcoming community where you can stay active and social with our small onsite gym, bowls, croquet, café, weekly activities and more. Conveniently located: • Southgate Shopping Centre 1km • Miranda Westfield and cinema 2.5 kms • Walking distance to bus stations • Short drive to Sylvania restaurants and a golf course • Cronulla Beach 8 kms Please note, you will need to pay a departure fee. Photography is representative only. Contact us ~ our team would love to connect with you for a village tour! Please note, you will need to pay a departure fee. Photography is representative only. Furniture and accessories not included.