Here's a wonderful opportunity to experience the privacy and tranquillity of rural living yet only a 10 minute drive to Scottsdale township and a 40 minute commute to Launceston. With a distinctive bay window and high ceilings this 4 bedroom home is oozing with charm and character and is just waiting for you to transform it into something special to suit your lifestyle or family needs. Sitting in a picturesque location on a large 5337m² block it features a sunny and spacious living room, combined kitchen and dining room, with a choice between electric and wood heating in the cooler months. The home is clad in low-maintenance vinyl weatherboards with a cedar extension and glass sliding doors at the rear. It is surrounded by private gardens and includes a separate studio/workshop and large double-garage. With plenty of outdoor space there is ample room to graze a horse or to run several cattle or sheep.
