This townhouse is so spacious, you can relax, entertain, or have a quiet night in. It offers all the bells and whistles you could ask for. The generous master bedroom, located on the ground level will give you that extra privacy also including the stunning ensuite fit for a king or queen, the sleek generous sized walk in shower, large shower head every one loves but only wishes they had. There is no need to fight for space as the clever designed custom built in wardrobes will give you all the space you need. The large open plan living area includes plenty of space, timber look tiles through out the first level of this home will lead you towards double glazed sliding doors out to a low maintenance private courtyard. The well appointed modern kitchen with stone benchtops, double deep set sinks and stainless steel gas cooktop. 3 reverse cycle split systems, heating and air-conditioning units through out the home will only keep you comfy all year round. Great sized bedrooms one with double mirrored built in wardrobes the other with sliding BIW. The modern main bathroom with large shower head, stainless steel tap wear and spacious bath will give you that room needed to shut off from the world. This property would be suitable for that small young family looking for space, style or comfort, business couple who like the pace and all the comforts a modern home can offer. Park securely in your own remote lock-up garage to keep your cars safe from weather damage. The property also features a small rear courtyard garden. Modern, sleek, convenience, spacious. an absolute delight.
