This beautiful home set in the lush grounds of Frederick Guest Village, Bull Creek boast a fully renovated one bedroom unit. The spacious bathroom, private courtyard and undercover parking directly outside the unit is a bonus for all potential residents over 55 yo. The Village boasts a community hall and library with free bus trips, games days, painting classes and group lunches. The hardwood floors and pristine white kitchen looks out at your own back private pathway. The laundry is ergonomically design to be closed away from last minute visitors. Frederick Guest Village in the southern Perth suburb of Bull Creek is the pride of its residents, with beautifully kept one and two-bedroom homes and established gardens. Just 13km from Perth city centre, the village is close to the Kwinana Freeway, and within walking distance of the Bull Creek shopping complex and Bull Creek station on the Perth-Mandurah line.
