With its bright interior, flowing layout, and lovely backyard and gardens, 26 Archibald Crescent goes above and beyond to craft an exceptionally comfortable everyday experience for the modern Australian family. It is located along a quiet stretch near the edge of Rosemeadow, surrounded by local parks and reserves, and within walking distance of Rosemeadow Public School. The home sets a very warm and welcoming tone by opening straight to a front-facing living area with timber flooring and air conditioning. This space flows right through to the central kitchen and dining area, with the kitchen featuring plenty of cabinetry and a 700mm gas cooktop. Bedrooms are primarily found upstairs, accompanied by a shared living area and bathroom with floor-to-ceiling tiling. They feature extra connections and large triple built-in wardrobes, whilst the downstairs master boasts extra privacy and its own ensuite. The alfresco entertaining area is located just a step beyond the kitchen. This large and versatile space is incredibly private and great for hosting a whole range of occasions. The backyard is multi-layered, providing an abundance of wonderfully landscaped gardens and a storage shed.
