26 Arura Street in Mansfield is a picture perfect home that is sure to impress - don't miss out! The floorplan and position of the home make an emphasis on Queensland's lifestyle with plenty of grass for kids and fur-babies to play in view from the kitchen window and front covered deck, positioned on the North-Eastern corner of the home to capture the morning sun. For larger gatherings, the backdoor of the home leads to a huge concrete entertainment space with landscaped gardens and a fire-pit for the cooler Winter evenings. An open plan living, dining and kitchen area is light filled, with a neutral colour scheme and is also air-conditioned with downlights and a ceiling fan. The kitchen is near-new with polished timber bench tops, stainless appliances including a dishwasher, and gas cooking; there is plenty of cupboard space and heaps of bench space. Polished timber flooring runs right throughout the home to all three bedrooms, which are a great size and have built-in-robos in all. The main bathroom is luxurious, with a free-standing bath, separate shower with natural rainfall showerhead, and a new vanity and toilet. A second toilet is conveniently located in the large laundry. This home boasts a family-friendly lifestyle only moments from amenities. Close to playgrounds, dog park, bike paths and bus stops, residents will also enjoy quick access to Westfield Carindale and Garden City less than 10 minutes away. Moments from the Gateway Motorway, three major Brisbane hospitals, 15 minutes to the airport and 20 minutes to the CBD.
