This property is impeccably presented both inside and out, making it very easy to live in. Located in the desirable suburb of Palmyra on 445sqm land, the securely-gated entry is great for not only kids, but the household pets as well. As you step onto the front porch and into the entrance, you're greeted by a clean neutral palette and polished timber floors. The formal lounge room offers an ideal living space for families, and works perfectly as a kids play room or chill out zone. The open plan kitchen offers a generous expanse of countertop space with breakfast bar. The light filled kitchen and dining spaces extend a warm invitation to the outdoor space through french doors to the spectacular timber decked patio area. Ideal for outdoor dining and entertaining in style. Inside, the pick of the bedrooms is the spacious master, with two further bedrooms and the family bathroom. An endless array of conveniences and attractions, two excellent local primary schools, Palmyra's Sunday farmer's market, and the benefits of a generous landholding within a safe and family-friendly community. - Immaculately presented inside and out- Extra high ceilings throughout- Decked patio area - Privacy wall- Single lock up garage - Survey-Strata title- Warm community, friendly neighbours- Convenient location - Walk to shopping, cafes, transport, Primary schools Please call selling agent Toby Bellegarde from Yard Property on 0411 166 983 for further information and your appointment to view.
