This 3 bedroom block home is nestled amongst beautiful bushland with utmost privacy with no neighbours in sight. Located in the quiet and sought after area of Wondecla on almost 4 acres with all year round creek as its back boundary. It's the property you've been waiting for. There are three bedrooms, all with built-ins and a fire place for those cooler nights. Two of the rooms opening up to the large 6x14 outdoor entertaining area, overlooking the timber deck and it's gorgeous bushland views. The property is landscaped with low maintenance bush gardens with native flowering trees which bring in an abundance of wildlife. Also on the block are over 20 established fruit trees which are all producing fruit. Water is fed from all year round creek or rain water tanks, with pump which feeds water to property and to the irrigation system surrounding the property for watering the trees. Also located on the property are 2 sheds, one is new, measuring 5x8m, an enlighten space for storing all your goodies, and an older shed which at the moment is used for the family pets.
