

26 Courcheval Terrace, Mons, QLD, 4556

Sold House

Friday, 28 April 2023

McGrath

26 Courcheval Terrace, Mons, QLD, 4556

Bedrooms: 4

Bathrooms: 3

Parkings: 2

Type: House

Damien Michael 0754508000

Stunning views and perfect presentation

Tucked into an extraordinarily private setting with expansive views taking in Mount Ninderry, Kiel Mountain through to Diddillibah, this recently renovated home pulls out all the stops. Flooded with natural light and enjoying an elevated position that captures lovely cooling breezes, it's an inspired layout perfect for this location. Surrounded by other quality homes in a private estate the street appeal and presentation of this home are of the highest standard.

- Large usable block with opportunity to build a pool
- Beautifully presented home built to the highest standards
- Stunning spotted gum timber floors and plantation shutters
- As new eat-in kitchen with gas hob and plentiful storage
- Modern main bathroom features luxurious bath and vanity
- Airconditioning in main living area, master, and guest room
- Multiple living areas and large covered veranda
- Home office with separate entry to the main home
- 3kw solar system and 5000ltr water tank
- Double garage, extensive storage, and off-street parking for caravan
- Mature and perfectly maintained gardens with a range of fruit trees
- Access to privately owned rainforest and nature walks
- Only minutes to Buderim village shops, cafes, and restaurants
- 15 Minutes to Sunshine Coast Airport, Hospital and Shopping Centres
- Close to Sunshine Coast University and a choice of Private Schools