This coastal family home is a gem, located in the desirable Cranberry Estate, just seconds away from kindergarten, primary school, and childcare facilities, this property offers unparalleled convenience. Boasting 3 bedrooms, including a master at the front of the residence with a walk-in robe and en-suite, the two further bedrooms inclusive of built in robes are situated to the rear and are serviced via the family bathroom and separate WC. The heart of the home is the spacious open-plan living, dining, and contemporary kitchen area, combined with an undercover alfresco making entertaining from indoors flow to the outdoors with ease. The kitchen standouts include stone bench tops, a walk-in pantry, a 900mm cooktop, and a dishwasher, making it ideal for modern living. Additional features include a separate second living zone and a dedicated study nook, gas ducted heating, split system cooling in the living area, laundry with good storage, and a double lock up garage with internal access. Fully fenced and private with low-maintenance front and rear gardens on a compact 367m² (approx.) allotment. Located in a popular position, enjoy the luxury of walking to schools, public transport, shops, cafes, restaurants, and the serene Deep Creek walking track. Plus, it is only a short drive to the many beaches of the Surf Coast, making this home the perfect coastal retreat for families seeking both convenience and comfortable family living. Call today!!
