

26 Glengarry Avenue, North Turrumurra, NSW 2074

STONE

House For Sale

Friday, 26 January 2024

26 Glengarry Avenue, North Turrumurra, NSW 2074

Bedrooms: 5

Bathrooms: 3

Parkings: 2

Area: 1119 m2

Type: House

Joey Hoover
0298808860

Susan Astridge
0298808860

Auction 24th Feb

Lovingly extended and renovated by its current owners to embrace its magnificent bush-side setting, this beautiful family home is a true haven for the whole family, exuding a special something so rarely found. Sleek dining and living spaces are bathed in natural light, while family entertaining areas spill onto a huge sun-filled deck and garden with a stunning bush scape backdrop. Unique architectural features throughout capture the essence of nature, punctuated by birdsong and the gentle water cascading in its sparkling pool, enhancing its tranquil appeal. Perfectly positioned in a quiet cul-de-sac, and with a north-to-rear aspect and a floorplan that caters for all needs, this is a home with a full heart, where family and friends can come together and truly relax. Situated just moments to the popular North Turramurra Village, local schools, golf course and Kur-ring-gai National Park, it is the perfect setting to be absorbed into this idyllic Upper North Shore community. - Designer gas kitchen with quality appliances, granite island and breakfast bar- Open-plan dining/living flow to rear entertaining terrace and spacious front balcony- Magnificent Master with pitched ceiling, balcony, en suite bathroom, built-in robes- Four double bedrooms incl guest room with Jack'n'Jill bathroom, underfloor heating - Rumpus room/teen retreat opening to covered sandstone terrace, steps to garden- North-to-rear lawns and solar-heated saltwater pool with bush scape backdrop- Spotted gum and original Jarrah floors, sash windows, travertine tiles, Daikin AC- DLUG with excellent storage, extensive boarded loft affording huge storage space - Manicured front garden with central fountain, superb off-street parking options