1 in a million!!

... And a million to 1, that you could ever get a better location than this!! Tucked right on the end and surrounded by 270 degrees of plush green grassed reserve, this property has one of the best and most unique locations imaginable.

The home offers uninterrupted front row seats to Glenhuntly reserve, with immediate walk on access to acres of majestic gums, manicured green grass to boot the footy and play equipment for the kids....and if that's not enough nature takes over with a show of its own!!

This phenomenal lifestyle is complemented by a much loved family home of wonderful proportions offering a huge formal living space with beautiful reserve aspect, an updated kitchen with all of the 'must haves' plus an adjacent large dining space. These areas provide a fantastic indoor/outdoor flow, which creates a really functional entertaining zone. Here no one misses out on the atmosphere, whether you're prepping in the kitchen or soaking up the surroundings under the large all weather entertaining area.

The home also offers 3 good sized bedrooms, master with ensuite and BIR's, a large master bathroom all of which are complemented by ducted reverse cycle air conditioning throughout or separate gas heating if desired. Other features of this wonderful property include a large private rear garden and huge undercover parking for at least 3 cars.

This is your moment to secure what can only be described as an incredibly rare piece of real estate, the likes of which will be very hard to replicate again. Therefore the best offer received by Monday the 4th July at 5pm will buy subject to favourable conditions.
