Positioned on a quiet corner block looking out to the Highlands Drive Park, this low maintenance home offers a practical and spacious setting for the growing family. Generously sized and capturing an abundance of natural light, this loving home is warm and welcoming from the moment you step inside. The central kitchen features timber toned cabinetry, stainless steel appliances and is finished with an island preparation bench, great for interaction within this space. The sliding doors unfold to the rear patio, making entertaining and outdoor living easily accessible. Fully fenced, the open and grassy lawn is a great outdoor area, perfect for children to play. This flat space also offers great potential to further landscape or add a pool to suit your desires. Filled with natural light, the generously sized master bedroom includes a walk-in robe and a well appointed ensuite. A further three bedrooms provide excellent accommodation for the entire family and are serviced by a main, immaculate bathroom which includes a full sized bathtub. Completing this home is an additional family or media room, a good sized laundry and a secure two car garage. Surrounded by great homes in a sought after Calamvale location, this residence is a short walk from public transport as well as an array of local parks and plenty of surrounding shops. 550m to Bus Stop 600m to Algester Road Post Office, Cafes and IGA. Less than 20km to Brisbane CBD. 4 Min drive to Calamvale Central & Sunnybank Hills Shoppingtown
