Discover the breath-taking 26 Haiser Road, Greenwell Point! A spectacular 3-bedroom, 2-bathroom house boasting a modern design and an incredible waterfront reserve location. As you step inside the main living space you are welcomed by the sun-drenched space and the almost panoramic water views. The living/kitchen/dining space is open and flows fantastically to the additional seating area and access to the balcony. The fully-equipped kitchen features ample space for storage and ideal room for culinary enthusiasts. The master bedroom is a private retreat with its own access to the balcony. Enter the master bedroom via the study which could be repurposed into a walk in robe or additional seating area. The other bedrooms are spacious and either feature built-in wardrobes or water views. Entertain your guests in style with the covered outdoor area overlooking the serene water front reserve, perfect for family gatherings or social events. The property also includes a single garage with front and rear access. The yard front and rear is a low maintenance design with plenty of space for the keen gardener to further improve. Situated in the tranquil Greenwell Point suburb, this property is conveniently located within easy reach of local shops, schools, and the magnificent Shoalhaven River. Do not miss out on this incredible opportunity to own a stunning home on the water front reserve - contact us today for further details! Jared Cochrane - 0404 210 824 Josh Adams - 0435 739 560
