Step into a world of unparalleled charm with this harbourside residence. Nestled in a prime location, this original solid home offers an exceptional lifestyle defined by stunning harbour views, Newcastle city panoramas and harbourside waterfront reserve access. From the moment you wake up to the breathtaking views outside your window to the tranquil evenings spent by the fireplace, this residence offers a sanctuary of comfort and style. Experience the convenience of city living with a ferry terminal just across the street, providing seamless access to Newcastle's vibrant downtown scene. Imagine stepping out of your front door and being greeted by the sights and sounds of the harbour, with ferries departing every 15 minutes, ready to whisk you away to your next adventure. But it's not just the convenience that makes this home special—it's the sense of community and belonging that comes with living in such a vibrant and dynamic neighbourhood. From local convenience stores and charming pubs to gourmet restaurants serving up the freshest seafood, everything you need is right at your doorstep. Let's not forget about the little luxuries that make everyday life feel like a holiday. Picture yourself indulging in fresh prawns caught by the locals from the nearby boat ramp or eating a fresh pub meal from the General Washington Hotel. With built-in wardrobes, retractable fans and gas cooking, this home seamlessly blends modern convenience with timeless charm. Whether you're hosting a dinner party with friends or enjoying a quiet night in with family, this residence offers the perfect backdrop for every occasion.
