Perched on top of Flagstaff Hill is this outstanding property. The incredibly vast views will surprise all those who will visit. A true 180 degree panoramic vista taking in the Coral Sea and the southern coastal ranges, the hinterland hills, the Port Douglas Marina, the inlet and the northern coastal reaches... Accessed from Island Point Road, there is no better address in North Qld. A home that has been fully rebuilt and is in stunning condition. No expense has been spared in creating the perfect tropical retreat. The entry level will impress with its double car accommodation, catering size kitchen, open flow dining & living, bathroom and a sprawling entertaining deck. Below you will find the spacious master suite and guest accommodation opening up to another incredible deck. The pool level offers up another guest suite, a living room, bathroom, an outside kitchen and a poolside entertaining and relaxation deck. All levels offer superb views, absolute privacy, quiet and great space to retreat to. This home is without peer and boasts two street frontages - boasting an enviable 1897 sq. m of tropical grounds stretching from Island Point Road right down to Murphy Street.
