Looking for the big block with room for the workshop and toys, then this could be for you. Built in 1962 this three bedroom, one bathroom home is set on a large 1012 sqm block and provides lots of options for those looking for a good sized block. Approximately 400 meters from the Rockingham Beach front, this block is just a short stroll to the main restaurant and shopping precinct of Rockingham Beach. Three double sized bedrooms, large lounge, breakfast nook and meals areas, split system air conditioning in the kitchen/dining area, wooden flooring, decorative cornices, garden shed and chook pen or bird aviary. Located in the Rockingham Council's Northern Waterfront Precinct and zoned Primary City Centre Living, this property is in a prime location for development so whether you want to renovate the existing home, use as an investment property to add to your portfolio or demolish and build your dream home, the choice is yours. .If you are looking to develop, then you could also secure 17 Alexandra Street and have over 1500 sqm that would meet the precinct zoning requirements. Properties in this area are not lasting long, so be quick to secure your own beach side location.- Development opportunity- Rockingham Beach a short stroll away- Large block- Garden shed and chook pen- Some mature trees- Carpet in two bedrooms- Wooden flooring in one bedroom and in main living areas- Split system air conditioning You are always welcome to contact Lee Murray or any of his team if you would like further information regarding this property or would like to organize a personal inspection outside of the home open.www.belleproperty.com/terms-of-use
