This endearing early 1900s bungalow in the heart of Lismore has been tastefully renovated and beautified inside and out. Holding onto many of its traditional features, the character-filled home contains everything you need for modern-day living. + Original timber floors, high ceilings and double-hung timber windows throughout+ Spacious lounge room with air-conditioning and a stunning feature fireplace (currently blocked but likely able to be re-instated)+ The modern eat-in kitchen has a gas stove, good storage options, a dishwasher, and an outlook to the backyard+ Three large bedrooms, all with ceiling fans. The front eastern-side bedroom could also double as a living space with its lovely French doors to the front verandah+ The bathroom offers a shower over a deep tub, a long vanity, and striking floor-to-ceiling tiles+ Cute front verandah to watch the world go by, a rear north-facing alfresco patio with a lovely arbour and a generous level backyardThis home has been recently rented to the Lismore Base Hospital for $550 per week, making it an excellent investment. Or, subject to DA, the property could also work as a prominent business location. Although the home was affected by the 2022 floods, it was fully restumped a few years ago and remains structurally sound and in excellent condition with its original hardwood timber. This home is well worth your inspection if you are looking for a traditional Lismore stunner.
